

WEBSITE RE-LAUNCH!

Making sure each person with cutaneous lymphoma gets the best care possible

The Cutaneous Lymphoma Foundation is excited to announce the re-launching of its website!

Our website at www.clfoundation.org now features a complete visual redesign and new content throughout making it more informative, resourceful and user-friendly.

Patients, caregivers, loved ones, physicians, researchers, advocates, and supporters who visit our website daily for information, resources and support will now be able to better:

- Access information about cutaneous lymphoma, treatment centers and physician/medical experts
- Learn about and access the many programs and services offered by the Foundation
- Diagnose cutaneous lymphoma or refer patients to specialists who can
- Learn about a patient's specific diagnosis and the wide variety of treatment options available
- Receive and give emotional support
- Learn about and access patient assistance programs
- Receive real-time Foundation news and updates
- Learn about patient stories and those of other key stakeholders driving our mission forward each day
- Participate in exciting, engaging fundraising activities to propel our Foundation toward growth and expansion of all that we do for those we serve

Highlights of the new website include:

- Expanded programs and resources section with much more content for patients
- Section for newly-diagnosed patients
- Informational video on the home page
- Many new sections including research, advocacy, get involved and ways to give

Our Website Re-Launch has been made possible through generous support received from Celgene Corporation.
